

Summarized below are substantive changes that were made in the Statewide Fisheries Management Program and Guide from the draft to the final version. Minor changes, such as typographic and formatting errors are not included.

Section	Page	Change
Introduction	6	Update Table 1 with updated information based on observations by field staff and input from Fish and Wildlife Service.
Fisheries Management Program	16	Add reference to FishMT for fish data and fishing information.
	19	Add clarification for bait other than live fish (e.g., leeches, night crawlers, maggots).
	20	Change the number of certified in-state live baitfish dealers to none.
	20	Remove reference to MCA 87-3-205.
	27	Update Statutes related to unauthorized placement of fish.
	30	Add Yellowstone cutthroat trout in example of hybridization with rainbow trout.
Aquatic Habitat Program	37	Add description of selective withdrawal systems at Hungry Horse and Libby Dams.
Part II	55	Update "Transfer" to include illegal introductions.
	56	Add criteria to better define what is considered a Quality and Trophy type fish.
	57	The Ecoregion map and all watershed maps have been updated in the final version.
	80	Add language about selective withdrawals from Hungry Horse Dam.
	80	Add update on the South Fork Flathead native fish project.
	96	Delete reference to the Flathead Lake and River Fisheries Co-Management Plan.
	150	Update upstream advance of smallmouth bass into the Clark Fork River.
	161	Update stocking of triploid fish in family fishing ponds to reduce risk of hybridization.
	170	Update bull trout management direction for Graves Creek.
	172	Update bull trout management direction for Rock Creek.
	178	Update Clark Canyon Reservoir fishing pressure.
	196	Update waterbodies that contain fluvial Arctic grayling populations.
	199	Update waterbodies that contain fluvial Arctic grayling populations.
	238	Increase monitoring for mountain whitefish when conditions and workload allow.
	241	Update language regarding monitoring of mountain whitefish.
	301	Update fish assemblage in Cut Bank Creek.
	303	Clarify Lake Frances and Tiber Reservoir stocking information.
	305	Add species present in Birch Creek Reservoir.
	306	Add species present in Cut Bank Creek.
	308	Clarify frequency of stocking for Lake Frances.
335	Add language for pallid sturgeon in the Milk River below Vandalia Dam.
373	Substitute a non-regulatory term for important pallid sturgeon habitat.
384	Adjust management boundary from Hells Canyon to Hawley Creek.
Direction for Individual Species or Groups of Species	458	Update waterbodies that contain fluvial Arctic grayling populations.
	475	Clarify long-term management goal for westslope cutthroat trout east of the Continental Divide.
	478	Update percentage of anglers targeting walleye statewide.
Glossary	486	Clarify that a wild fish can be a native or non-native species.